

Simon Proulx Born in Quebec City in 1973, Simon Proulx began playing guitar at six years old. After his studies in jazz guitar and arranging at the Cegep St-Laurent, Campus Notre-Dame-de-Foy and Université Laval, he started his career as an accompanist, composer and arranger for theater, cinema and television. He is also on stage regularly with artists such as Gilles Vigneault, Benoît Archambeault, Linda Racine and many others, touring Quebec and Europe.